

WICKHAM WAR DEAD 1914-1918 REMEMBERED

Our War Memorial stands outside St. Nicholas Church. Every year, on Remembrance Sunday, members of Wickham organisations, led by the Wickham Branch of the Royal British Legion, march from The Square to the church for a Service of Remembrance, during which the names of the fallen are read aloud to the congregation.

Wreaths of poppy flowers are laid on the Memorial by representative of each organisation present, and some individual people also lay a poppy.

“At the going down of the sun, and in the morning, we will remember them”.
